CASE PROFILE

This company faced many challenges as their previous web design company had created hundreds of auto websites with the exact same content. From the beginning, we noticed many issues with their site. Our primary goal for this auto repair company was to gain top fold positioning for targeted keywords. Gaining top fold for these keywords has given the client a massive boost in organic search traffic from Google and other search engines. We provided site audits, keyword research, site optimization, site speed optimization, fresh content sitewide, optimization of Google My Business, 301 redirects, localized search engine submissions and citation building, link building and content marketing to build social signals.
